

Abstract

The invention pertains to a weight sensor comprising force-translating elements cooperating in a levered manner that are arranged at least in part asymmetrical to an imaginary center plane of the weight sensor.

Main drawing is Figure 1.

1000.application to be filed.wpd